

Angel, No Matter

Doesn't Matter whom you are with
Doesn't matter where you are going
Don't you know I'm still waiting here for you
And Pray for you

In the sunny days, Suns will light your day
In the windy days, When will we go away?
I have to say, you're my trease moments
Never gonna walk away

In the rainy days, rains will share the tears
In the stormy days, storms will steal my pain
Just go your way and leave things all behind
Spread your wings and fly away

I'm pretending you're mine
I'm wishing you'll be mine
The moments we share never die
You've made a difference to my life
