

Angel Taylor, Chai Tea Latte

You seem like...

Mr. perfect

Why don't you drive over and pick me up?

I'll wear my best outfit

And people might compliment

Our chocolate and vanilla skin and how it looks so good together mixed in...

'Cause without you my flavor is a little plain

And no one likes plain things

I wanna walk to your house

'Cause you're just up the street

And seeing you in person is so much better than my thoughts and my dreams...

And you've blown my mind in 2 hours time

And I'm so weak and unable to

Picture, you with someone other than me

But I guess I have to

'Cause you haven't asked me out...

On a date...

To get some Chai Tea lattes

You, open the door for me always

You're such a gentleman like that

And I don't know anyone who has a sweeter heart than you do

You're like, 20 billion Reese cups in 2

And this Christmas what I really, really, really, really, really want is a call from you to say

"Angel I seem to think of you everyday and ever since I've gone away

I just have to say...that you've...

Blown my mind in 2 hours time

And I'm so weak and unable to

Picture, you with someone other than me

But I guess I have to

'Cause I haven't asked you out..

So go ahead and ask me

Go ahead and ask me out

I live at 25052 Walnut St.

And I'll be waiting for my doorbell to ring...

'Cause you've blown my mind in 2 hours time

And I'm so weak and unable to

Picture, you with someone other than me

But I guess I have to

'Cause you haven't asked me out...

Out...Out...

Oh just ask me out, cause i'm just dyin' for a Chai Tea Latte.
