

Angel Taylor, Not Even Human

I have been taken before You're not the first to rob me of my peace and my sanity You've taken all my peace and my sanity
You must have been kidding with that romantic love spell, or maybe I just didn't hear you right You run over my heart, and then ask for it back
You must think that that's alright
Well its not alright But you're not even human You're just the lovely idea of one who I accidentally loved and gave everything to-become the girl on the piano bench,
singing all of her tears away
So did you feel sorry for me or was i some charity case that you thought you could save?
Well I was better off, not even knowing your name
I was so much better off Cuz you're not even human
You're just the lovely idea of one who I accidentally loved
and gave everything to-
become the girl on the piano bench,
singing all of her tears away
all of her tears away
Cuz you're not even human
and gave everything to-
become the girl on the piano bench,
singing all of her tears away
all of her tears away
