

Angela McCluskey, Anything But Love

(Squirrel Nut Zippers cover / Dr. John & Angela McCluskey / Flirting With Disaster OST)

Angela:

I sing a song about clouds and rainbows
I hum a tune that sings like a dove
Rhyme some words about anything
Anything but love

Dr. John:

Yeah, I paint a picture of my prison
With blue and gray from the sky above
Framed and signed with the title
"Anything But Love"

Angela & Dr. John:

He had to go, but I won't miss him (oh, no)
I have got better things to do
Like writing stories and painting pictures
Of anything but love

I write a story about a couple
Steal a plot from some old movie
You can tell what inspired it
Anything but love (that's right)

He had to go, but I won't miss him (you won't)
I have got better things to do
Like writing stories and painting pictures
Of anything but love
Anything but love
Anything but love
Anything but love
