

Angela's Dish, Soft November

White walls and empty hallways
Nine o'clocks my wake up call
Drip drip what a sinking feeling
Tick tock tick tock now it's time to go
Are you scared cos I'm not baby
We're just not built to last
There's an end to every story
Bye bye flash flash it goes so fast
So when I fall asleep tonight
Could you Stay and hold me tight
And could you pray that ill be with you tomorrow
Cos the pain is gripping me and the drugs are as useful as a song
Soft November rain washes me away
Do you believe in fallen angel?
Stay here and wish me well
Do you believe we live forever?
Or Lie, die we're going straight to hell
I'm close but you'll get closer
Stay clear and think it through
Cash cash it turns to paper
And when you're six foot down
It's kinda hard to use
Hold me now as I fall to sleep
I'll meet you in your broken dreams
Stay here now as I fall to sleep
I see the light it's taking me away
Will you remember me?
