

Angelas Dish, On A Sign

You were the one with all the big plans honey
Now you're well and truly on your way
And i was stuck i just had to pretend
That i was happy for you everyday
And now you say
"This is who i am, yeah and this is what i want"
If this is who you are i just don't think i want you
I know it's very hard but it's also very true
If this is who you are i just don't think i love you
The sun it goes down ending our day
This time it won't come up again
The sun it goes down ending our day
This time it won't come up again
We were the ones who had no chance honey
It was always going to end this way
We were doomed from the start now i see
You and i we're both the same and i say
"We're walking down the street and we're trying to hold hands
And we're looking in the eyes
But we both know it's goodbye
Now it's time to go
There's a fork in the road
Your name's written on a sign
But it's pointing away from mine"
The sun it goes down ending our day
This time it won't come up again
The sun it goes down ending our day
This time it won't come up again
The sun it goes down ending our day
This time it won't come up again
The sun it goes down ending our day
This time it won't come up again
Again...
Again...
