

Angelas Dish, Step Up

And hold me now because i'm drowning
And i can see you as you are floating
And i don't know why i can't find
The joy that i have in you
Hold me now because i'm fading
And i can see you as i'm drifting away from you
You can see me too
You, you can see me too
If the world will hate you now
If the world will hate you now
If the world will hate you now
If the world will hate you now
Now...

Where to go from here
If i rise i'll fall
Where to go from here
If i rise i'll fall
Step up step up i know i need you
Step up step up you know i love you
Step up step up you know i need you
Step up step up i'll never forget
I'll never for...
If i rise i'll fall...
