

Angelas Dish, When I'm Gone

I can see you crying
'Cause you know that I'm leaving
I know how much you hate it
Being on your own
So here's a little song
I wrote it just for you girl
You can listen to it
You can leave it on repeat
Every single day of the week
It says "I love you and
You've got everything I need";
So when I'm gone away
I can see you crying
'Cause you know that I'm leaving
I know how much you hate it
Being by yourself
So here's a little song
I wrote it just for you girl
You can listen to it
You can leave it on repeat

Every single day of the week
It says "I love you and
You've got everything I need";
So when I'm gone away
You can still here me say
Yeah when I'm gone away
You can still
Oh oh
Yeah honey you know I'm miles away
But I just want you to hear me say
"Well hey, everything will be ok";
"Well hey, everything will be alright";
"Well hey, everything will be o be ok";
"Well hey, everything will be o be ok";
"Well hey, everything will be alright
Because I love you and
You've got everything I need";
So when I'm gone away
Yeah when I'm gone away
