

Angelfish, Dogs In A Cage

I feel your bones and you feel so sinful
Feel your back and you feel so simple
Feel your legs and your hands and your hips and
Feel your thighs and your back is twisting
I feel your heart and your lips are burning
Feel your skin and your eyes are closing
Feel your mind as it struggles forward
Feel you fall, feel you so awkward

When they all lie will you remember me?
When it all dies you will remember me

Feel your back and you feel so sinful
Feel your bones and you feel so simple
Feel your legs and your hands and your hips and
Feel your thighs and your neck is twisting

When they all lie will you remember me?
When it all dies you will remember me

I'm hungry, feed me
I'm hungry, feed me
I'm hungry, feed me
I'm hungry, feed me

Feed me
Feed me
Feed me
Feed me
