

Angelis, Even Though You're Gone

Words, words are not enough
For me to say how much I miss you
You flew away too soon
I feel so alone not with you

But when I close my eyes
Every night
I hear your voice like an Angel
And you're here again by my side
I swear, I hear your words
They sing through me
And I'm back where I belong
You are here even though you are gone

You're here, everywhere I go
Deep inside my heart forever
And one, one sweet day I know
We will be back together

But until we are, here in the dark
I hear your voice like an Angel
And you're here with me by my side
I swear I hear your words
They sing through me
And I'm back where I belong
You are here even though you are gone
And I know that inside you live on

I hear your voice like an Angel
And you're here with me by my side
I swear I hear your words
They sing through me
And I'm back where I belong
You are here even though you are gone
And I know that inside you live on
