

Angelo Kelly, Child of God

I could feel hatred, I could pull all my hair out,
I could be your enemy but that wouldnt be any good for me.
I gave you my heart, but you threw tomatoes
I gave you my all, but that just wasnt enough for you Youre a child of God and thats why I still love you Youre a child of God and thats why Ill forgive you Youre a child of God and thats why I will sing for you Youre a child of God and thats why I, thats why I must love you
I thought about starting a fight I wanted to punch you out but I know that just wouldnt be right cause then I wouldnt be any better You laugh at me and you spit me out your words could easily hurt cut me up but the Lord is big and hes helped me out to put this all in a prayer
Youre a child of God and thats why I still love you
Youre a child of God and thats why Ill forgive you I try to give ten for one but that aint always easy How about ten for none should I still be giving Youre a child of God....
