

Angelo Kelly, Farewell

When did we all lose our tracks
And in the end what will it cost
We used to be so full of vision
I'm sure we had a mission
But now most of it is lost
No longer will I endure
The harm we bring to each other
Tell me where this sickness came from
And why we just carry on
Where there is so much to be recovered
I shall always love you
I shall always thank you
All my older brothers and sisters
For all that you have done
All that you have done for me
It's better to smile than not to smile
And that may be true usually
Why should I be smiling about
If nothing's worth smiling about
I'd only be lying to thee
I pray the day it shall come
When we might stand again as one
One at heart one in mind
And no one to be left behind
But can the damage be undone
I shall always love you
I shall always thank you
All my older brothers and sisters
For all that you have done
All that you have done, say
I shall always love you
I shall always thank you
All my older brothers and sisters
For all that you have done
All that you have done for me
Soon we will be dancing and we'll sing songs of the past
One day we'll be laughing for these struggles are not meant to last
Soon we will be dancing and we'll sing songs of the past
One day we'll be laughing for these struggles are not meant to last
Soon we will be dancing and we'll sing songs of the past
One day we'll be laughing for these struggles are not meant to last
(Lalalala lai la lai, lalalala lai la lai....)
