

Angelrage, Fight the Devil

Angelrage

Fight the Devil

Fight the Devil

He is the pain and temptation you constantly fight the filth that you watch on your screens every night
A glitter of selfishness there in your eyes
He is king only of lies

Fight the devil / fight the devil

You fight the devil every day

Fight the devil / fight the devil

You fight the devil every day

He is the master of fools and the father of greed the money you spend on the things you don't need He's looking for ways you can make yourself bleed
Resist him and he will flee

Fight the devil / fight the devil

You fight the devil every day

Fight the devil / fight the devil
