

Angels & Airwaves, Star Of Bethlehem

[Szept:]

What are you waiting for?

She's Here

She's a star, somewhere in the night time sky

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh.

The snow has come down on top of everything,

The town, is alive and well without you.

The lights - they peer out of the leafless trees,

And you won't be alone, I am beside you.

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh.

True love - the stars in the sky illuminate below,

The light is the sign that love will guide you home.

The stars in the sky illuminate below,

If the world were to die, the light will guide you.

Tears spilling out across a dead end street,

Your house is a lonely box that holds you.

A star, bright and loud, is in dire need,

Of that fear - it is an empty fear inside you.

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh

Yo eh, oh eh, oh eh, oh.

True love - the stars in the sky illuminate below,

The light is the sign that love will guide you home.

The stars in the sky illuminate below,

If the world were to die, the light will guide you.

The stars in the sky illuminate below,

The light is the sign that love will guide you home.

The stars in the sky illuminate below,

If the world were to die, the light will guide you.

True love - the stars in the sky illuminate below,

The light is the sign that love will guide you home.

The stars in the sky illuminate below,

If the world were to die, the light will guide you.

The stars in the sky illuminate below,

The light is the sign that love will guide you home.

The stars in the sky illuminate below,

If the world were to die, the light will guide you.

True love - the stars in the sky illuminate below,

The light is the sign that love will guide you home.
