

Angels & Airwaves, Surrender

There is a crowd in here, that fooled themselves
They brought their friends, and they made their Hell.
They fake their grin, in a lonely cell.
To the bitter end,
But what do I know?

There are a few in here, that hurt themselves;
They kick, and bend in a dried-up well.
They call for help, and you know them well.
Are you aware?
But what do I know?

I, I will not surrender
No I, I will not surrender
No I, I will not surrender
No I, I will not surrender

When God falls fast asleep
The kids still dance in city streets
From the white house lawn to the middle east
And all around I'm just saying that this time I feel it now

When God falls fast asleep
The kids still move to a steady beat
Even if its bombs landing at their feet
Or all around I'm just saying that this time I feel it now

There is a place to hide,
It's in our minds,
It's in the dark
It's well known that we have a fragile heart
Its deep inside
It has a sound that you can follow

You feel like you hit a wall
But you survive
And it was hard for you to swallow
I've been to that place before
In spite of luck
When you awake, a new tomorrow

I, I will not surrender
No I, I will not surrender
No I, I will not surrender
No I, I will not surrender

When God falls fast asleep
The kids still dance in city streets
From the white house lawn to the Middle East
And all around
I'm just saying that this time I feel it now

When God falls fast asleep
The kids still move to a steady beat
Even if it's bombs landing at their feet
Or all around
I'm just saying that this time I feel it now

When God falls fast asleep
The kids still dance in city streets
From the white house lawn to the Middle East
And all around I'm just saying that this time I feel it now

When God falls fast asleep

The kids still move to a steady beat
Even if its bombs landing at their feet
Or all around
I?m just saying that this time I feel it now

I feel it now
This time I feel it now
I feel it now

Oh oh oh oh oh
Yea ah oh oh oh oh oh
Yea ah oh oh oh oh oh
Yea ah oh oh oh oh oh (This time I feel it now)
