

Angels & Airwaves, Take The Stairs

These words are coming from me,
I know it
She knows it

These words are coming from him,
He knows it
I know it

These words are breaking apart,
In my hands
In her eyes

He knows that
That she'll be a what,
I know it
I know it

These lights are fading to red,
I know it
I know it

Your words are a song in my head,
I know it
I know it
