

Angels and Airwaves, Star of Bethlehem

Yoi oih oih oh
the snow
has come down
on top of everything
the town
is alive in weel without you the lights
they vier out of the leafless trees and you wont be alone
i'm beside you
Yoi oih oih oh
True love
the stars in the sky
Illuminate below
light is the sign that love Will guide you home
the stars in the sky
if the world were to Die,that light will guide you tears spilling out
across the dead end street your house is alone box that hold you A star bright and out loud is in dire need of the fear it is an empty fear inside you
yoi oih oih oh
True love
the stars in the sky
Illuminate below
light is the sign that love Will guide you home
the stars in the sky
Illuminate below
if the world were to Die,that light will guide you
