

Anggun, Secret Of The Sea

Calling 'cross the blue
It's all I do
One day you'll come back to me
It's a secret of the sea
I'll always love you
Always

I see
Floating on the ocean
Somewhere under the sun
Your golden skin
In cypress and blue

I hear
Waves that come rolling in
Fleetness of wings
A sound is missing
A sign from you

Calling 'cross the blue
It's all I do
One day you'll come back to me
It's a secret of the sea
I'll always love you

I may never know
Where you did go
Whatever took you from here

One these currents that run deep
I'll always love you
Always

We would
Sail into that big sky
Forget about the time
On the wind we would ride
Watchin' wild birds sweep and glide

I'll linger just a little more
Drifting on a foreign shore
Spend my nights
Waiting out the tides

Calling 'cross the blue
It's all I do
One day you'll come back to me
It's a secret of the sea
I'll always love you

I may never know
Where you did go
Whatever took you from here
On these currents that run deep
I'll always love you
Always
