

Angie Aparo, Flesh Breath And Bone

Cold winter killed my soul
A spring time fuck was gold
For this my life I sold
For flesh and breath and bone
Got nobody to hold
Got no beauty in this place
Got no water in my cage
I wash myself in shame
I piss on my good name
In a scarlet candle flame
A dog on a rusted chain
I come for a lifetime stain, yeah

Got no beauty in this place
Got no water in my cage
Got pale moon to light my way
Got no beauty in this place
Got no water in my cage
Got pale moon to light my way
Got no water in my cage
No water in my cage
No water in my cage
