

Angie Aparo, I Am Whoever

Ride my wave
Don't complicate me
I am the fortune of your fathers
I am nothing more than what you make me
A killer in the act
A mother's water breaking
An old man looking back
We all have glory waking
Ride my wave
I am solar space
I am the unborn in the clouds
I am whoever, now can you paint my face?
A killer in the act
A mother's water breaking
We all have needle tracks
We all have glory waking, yeah
I'm falling over you
And love's the only measure
I'm falling over you
I am whoever
