Suddenly - Angry Anderson

Lonely dream that I would find,
A loving heart and open mind,
See the real me and I'd hope that you would be the one.
A chance to talk a chance to grow,
I'll take the risk; let my feelings flow,
Found the words I need to say...

Suddenly your seeing me just the way I am,
Suddenly your hearing me so I'm talking just as fast as I can to you,
Suddenly every part of me needs to know every part of you.

Now I know that you are mine you bring me love and peace of mind,
You see the real me and I know that your the key...

Suddenly your seeing me just the way I am,
Suddenly your hearing me so I'm talking just as fast as I can to you,
Suddenly every part of me needs to know every part of you.

[BRIDGE]

Suddenly your seeing me just the way I am,
Suddenly your hearing me so I'm talking just as fast as I can to you,
Suddenly all of me; your all I want; all I need you to be,
Suddenly every part of me needs to know every part of you,
Just you, it's you.
