

Angus, Heavyweight Warrior

The heavy weight warriors are ready for their attack
When dawn breaks through soldiers will be back

[Chorus:]

What can it be this night

It's the march of the undead army

The heavy weight warriors are ready for their attack

When dawn breaks through soldiers will be back

Out from the undead their bodies became awake

Their victims get slaughtered let there be no mistake

[Repeat Chorus (x2)]

The march of the undead is seen with fear

Monster man take over your death is near

The march of the undead is seen with fear

Monster man take over your death is near

The holy soldiers are creeping at night

Are out for blood but they can't stand the light

The Hounds of Hell crawl back into their holes

At sunrise the undead will steal your soul

[Repeat Chorus (x2)]
