

Ani DiFranco, Welcome To:

welcome to:
no amount of stoned makes you feel ok
welcome to:
this year's alone - brought to you by Christmas day
welcome to:
the darkness into which prayin people pray it's quiet here except for this song
now that everybody's gone
but hey
least you don't have to play along today
welcome to:
something like elation when you first open your eyes just cuz it means that you musta finally got to sleep last night
welcome to:
the precipice between groundlessness and flight
it's quiet here except for this song
but hey
besides which
welcome to:
taking the good stuff down off of the shelf and welcome to:
the art of conversation with yourself
welcome to:
humming an unbroken tune all day long
yes it's quiet here
but hey
