

Anika Paris, All my life

(hmmmm, hmmmm)
listen to the raindrops fallin' on the world outside just like a million thoughts inside my head and stories in my mind I wish that I could close my eyes and find a quiet place to fall into tonight (yeah) coz I don't mean much of anything except another breath of you and I hope that there are angels watching everything we do can I finally say that today's the day that I surrender all my love to you (yeah) so tell me somethin' baby tell me should I stay or tell me should I go coz I've been thinkin' lately, that this time I've gotta let my feelin show coz I don't wanna hear "well maybe";
I don't wanna hear "we'll try";
I've been waiting all my life to fall in love, so tell me that I'm just not dreaming tell me everything's gonna be all right gonna be all right so if I wish upon a star not to lose my way or lose my heart but I know it's a real thing will I have one with meaning coz you know that I'm not made of steel but it's dangerous for me to feel this way (yeah)
so tell me somethin' baby
tell me should I stay or tell me should I go coz I've been thinkin' lately, that this time I'm gonna let my feelin show coz I don't wanna hear "well maybe";
I don't wanna hear "we'll try";
I've been waiting all my life to fall in love, so
tell me that I'm just not dreaming
gonna be all right
(hey-yeah, hey-yeah)
(x2)
I don't wanna hear "well maybe";
I don't wanna hear "we'll try";
I've been waiting all my life to fall in love, so
tell me that I'm just not dreaming
tell me "everything's gonna be all right";
gonna be all right
every little thing every little thing every little thing's gonna be all right
every little thing's gonna be all right
