

Animal Alpha, Even When I'm Wrong I'm Right

You go in alive and you come out like common trash
This must be joke
need beer and blood
I'm starting to frizz up
You oughta know that she's a sell-out
You oughta know
you oughta know that she's a sell-out
She will make it look like you accidentally shot yourself in the anus Play us
This song is a growing on me
Now where is that shithead

You oughta know
you oughta know that she's a sell-out
Where's your judgement?
You're doomed to fail without a doubt
It is a fraud
Wake up and taste your own fallout
Break the law to enforce the law, sucker
You oughta know that she's a sell-out
You oughta know that she's a fraud
Even when I'm wrong, I'm right
