

Animal Collective, Sleeper Factory

Should I tell you where I wanna be?
At the Sleeper Factory
Where people sleep in tiny rooms
They sleep upon their fronts and on their toes
Should I tell you where I wanna go?
To a sleepy undertow
Drifting away off in the deep
I wish there was a place I'd like to sleep
Should I tell you what I wanna do?
Find a bed and sleep with you
Cause two can sleep, much more than one
And sleepin' with another is so much fun
And we're gone they'll leave us be
We're at the sleeping factory
And we'll be back in a week
They'll find us by the lake or by the creek
