

Animal Collective, Tikwid

Gonna make
Up today
Pumpkin (pumpkin) [note: Pumpkin is used as a name in a couple other AC songs]
And if they come for us
We'll hide in my jar
You and me
We've breaded our Hands together
Hold till my blues fade
If they bawl
I feel like a ghost who's got a skeleton face
I'm gonna run behind you in the shadows place
And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm
It's a pie
And it's berries in my heart bread
Berries in my heart bread
You and me
Chained to the
Thumb piano (thumb piano)
Walk down streets
With red in our clothes
You and me
Under clear
Umbrellas
I said that once an eve
I'm drying your
Bones
I feel like a ghost, I've got the skeleton face
And I'll live in a house with a bunch of people
And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm
It's a pie
And it's berries in my heart bread
Said it's berries in my heart bread
You and me
Pushing a
Thumb pin (thumbpin)
When we're good and ready
We can swim in the flood
I feel like a ghost, I've got the skeleton face
I own a secret tomb and I'll never be late
And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm
It's a pie
And it's berries in my heart bread
Said it's puts berries in my heart bread
Tikwid
It glows
I know
You know
It glows
It glows
I know
You know
It glows
You and me
We're hooking our Eyes a little (eyes a little)
In a tree
Where the arches gleam
Below
Our highs sing
With familiar creams
Swap around a little stall
Lean on me
And we can watch the sun

Build home
I feel like a ghost who's got a skeleton face
I crawl around behind you in the shadows place
And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm
It's a cry
And it's berries in my heart bread
Said it's berries in my heart bread
I feel like a ghost who's got a skeleton face
But now I live in a house with a country gate
And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm
It's a cry
And it's berries in my heart bread
Said it's berries in my heart bread
