Animal Collective, Tikwid

Gonna make

Up today

Pumpkin (pumpkin) [note: Pumpkin is used as a name in a couple other AC songs]

And if they come for us

We'll hide in my jar

You and me

We've breaded our

Hands together

Hold till my blues fade

If they bawl

I feel like a ghost who's got a skeleton face

I'm gonna run behind you in the shadows place

And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm

It's a pie

And it's berries in my heart bread

Berries in my heart bread

You and me

Chained to the

Thumb piano (thumb piano)

Walk down streets

With red in our clothes

You and me

Under clear

Umbrellas

I said that once an eve

I'm drying your

Bones

I feel like a ghost, I've got the skeleton face

And I'll live in a house with a bunch of people

And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm

It's a pie

And it's berries in my heart bread

Said it's berries in my heart bread

You and me

Pushing a

Thumb pin (thumbpin)

When we're good and ready

We can swim in the flood

I feel like a ghost, I've got the skeleton face

I own a secret tomb and I'll never be late

And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm

It's a pie

And it's berries in my heart bread

Said it's puts berries in my heart bread

Tikwid

It glows

I know

You know

It glows

It glows

I know

You know

It glows

You and me

We're hooking our

Eyes a little (eyes a little)

In a tree

Where the arches gleam

Below

Our highs sing

With familiar creams

Swap around a little stall

Lean on me

And we can watch the sun

Build home
I feel like a ghost who's got a skeleton fact
I crawl around behind you in the shadows place
And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm
It's a cry
And it's berries in my heart bread
Said it's berries in my heart bread
I feel like a ghost who's got a skeleton face
But now I live in a house with a country gate
And I can feel your rhythm if you feel my rhythm
It's a cry
And it's berries in my heart bread
Said it's berries in my heart bread