

Animal Collective, What Would I Want? Sky

[** &quot;Unbroken Chain&quot; by Grateful Dead {Sampler}:]

What would I want... Sky!
Is everything alright?
You feeling lonely?
You feeling homely?
You're not the only
Is everything alright?
You feeling moany?
You feeling stoney?
You're not the only
Do you get up up up?
I stop and go above me
Too bad they can't help me
Here in the right way
Do I get up up up?
I stop and look around me
Green, where the color should be
What is the right way?
Old glasses clinking and a new board is blinking
And I -
I should be floating but I'm weighted by thinking
That I got on the river
Really can't make it change
And the sky got filled up too fast
And the taxi man's saying, &quot;You betta
Give him your money;
Stop daydreaming, dude!&quot;
When the point of horizon is hiding from you
What would you want sky?
Are you taking it lightly?
Lost in the flurries
You start to worry
You will be buried
Taking it lightly
And so I hurry
I start to worry
Here come them flurries
Do you get up up up?
I stop and go above me
Too bad they can't help me
What is the right way?
Do I get up up up?
I stop and look around me
Green, where the color should be
What is the right way?
Old glasses clinking and a new board is blinking
And I -
I should be floating but I'm weighted by thinking
That I got on the river
Really can't make it change
And the sky got filled up too fast
And the taxi man's saying, &quot;You betta
Give him your money;
Stop daydreaming, dude!&quot;
When the point of horizon is hiding from you
What would you want sky?
What would I want sky!
What would I want sky!
