

Animal Logic, There's A Spy (In The House Of Love)

There's a spy
In the house of love
And he knows what
I'm thinking of
He's making friends in places high above
In the house of love
In the house of love

I had dreams
They were laid to waste
I lost the time
And I lost the taste
I need him now to meet me face-to-face
In the house of love
In the house of love

Someday I'll find out who it is
And when I do he'll probably go
And the message can only be is
Whatever it says I need to know

There's a spy
He's in every room
Has no name
Only a nom de plume
It's hard to rise above the sense of doom
In the house of love
In the house of love

Someday I'll find out who it is
And when I do he'll probably go
And the message can only be is
Whatever it says I need to know

He's got a reason that he's following me
And why we're on this crazy ride
Can't take the answer it was meant to be
Maybe that's why he's still at my side

And I'll wait in the house of love
Until I'm sure what I'm thinking of
And when I do some angel up above
Will come on home to the house of love

Someday I'll find out who it is
And when I do he'll probably go
'Cause the message can only be is
Whatever it says I need to know

There's a spy
In the house of love
In the house of love
In the house of love

In the house of love
There's a spy
