Sugar Pills

Spins, Falling out.

Even as she choked calm,
She collected the dramatic effects on me.

Only the purest of killers can love,
Plus I'm straight off the rack as we are,
And I'm keeping perfect time.

So its the only time now,
and its shot beneath my feet,
and that's all I have to say.

I miss your jacket love,
Been round' the cigarettes,
as I whisper "I'll do it."

How 'bout the pain of suffering,
thats the least she could do,
to relieve this heart.

But I'll leave it all behind,
at the scene of the crime,
where she found her wedding ring,
Tied to him, Tied to him,
Its all at the scene of the crime.

So it's the only time now,
and its shot beneath my feet,
and thats all I Have to say,
I miss your jacket yes,
Been round the cigarettes,
as I whisper "Ill do it."

Every imperfection is a sorrows slain,
Its the saddest song that I refused to call.
Anymore.

So just let it go.
Let the rain fall,
Just whether my heart falls.

:: Screams ::

So its the only time now,
and its shot beneath my feet,
and thats all you had to say.
I miss your jacket yes,
been 'round the cigarettes,
as I whisper "I'll do it."

Yeah.
