

Anita Baker, I Apologize

Operator
get my baby on the line cause just the other night we had a horrible fight i admit that i
i was out of control
but i still love my man with my body and soul

when the road gets rough
you say thangs you should not say i never meant to treat my baby that way

i apologize
oh believe me i do
oh honest and true
because i know i was wrong so i'll sing you this song cause i wannna get through and make it up to you yeah

it was like a bad dream lord you should have heard the way he shouted
and the way that i screamed i regret it
cause i was unfair
i took it all out on him just because he was there

to treat my daddy that way

oh believe me i do
because i knew i was wrong and so i'll sing you my song yeah yeah yeah

i apologize for i was unkind and i wish that i could go back in time
erase the good-byes
and rewrite my life
well come rain or come shine i'm gonna do right this time

oh oh
um um yeah
oh baby i do
that's why i'm singing
my my my song
yeah yeah yeah yeah
i apologize oh yeah
i apologize oh yeah oh yeah
