

Anita Baker, You're the best thing yet

Chorus: You're the best thing yet, to ever come into my life
An understanding hand, when the world calls me grand
You protect my heart, right from the start
Sensitive vibes are strong and true
The very best I've always shared with you
And if I should fall, or if I'm stading tall
I can see you standing there, always willing to share
Each and every part of me
You see things I never, never see

(Repeat chorus twice)

Deep down in my mind, I wonder at the blessing that I could find Someone as loving as you
Could bring into my life this feeling so right
And so true

Like the flowing waters of a silver stream
And like the misty vision in a midnight dream
Such a wonder of life to me
So rare is found such a reason to be

(Repeat chorus twice)

Like the flowing waters of a silver stream
And like the misty vision in a midnight dream
Such a wonder of life to me
So rare is found such a reason to be

(Repeat chorus twice)

Vamp: You're so wonderful

You're so beautiful

You're the best thing yet

To ever come into my life

(Repeat Vamp)
