

Anita Cochran, Thanks For Reading My Mind

Do you know, how glad I am to be in love with you
For the first time in my life, I've found a love that's true
Can you feel my heart speaking to you
It's so hard to tell you
It's like a wall you see right through
Thanks for reading my mind
You know just what need to say
Time after time before the moments slips away
When I'm lost for words
You say the very ones that I can't find
Thanks for reading my mind
Do you feel, what I feel when we're making love
A thousand words can be heard with just a simple touch
When there's only silence do you understand
And you reach for my hand
It's so good to know of course you can
Thanks for reading my mind
You know just what need to say
Time after time before the moments slips away
When I'm lost for words
You say the very ones that I can't find
Thanks for reading my mind
When I'm lost for words
You say the very ones that I can't find
Thanks for reading my mind
