

Anita Lipnicka & John Porter, Aqua blue

Nothing ever can explain why I let it go astray Why I let it fade to grey when what we had was an aqua blue Aqua blue like sea and sky deep below and way up high doesn't have to prove itself to somebody else ... give me aqua blue Walk me through the waterfall let me start anew
back to the aqua blue It was such a big mistake tell me it's not too late say you're gonna ease the pain and drift again... in the aqua blue Walk me ...
