

Anita Lipnicka & John Porter, Secret wish

Feat - J.Porter

Summertime long dead and gone

When a sudden heat wave burns my skin

Caught his eye and all went lost -

For someone guessed my secret wish

Spaceships and stars

Freeze all at once -

And let this moment last

Can you see the fireworks?

Taste gunpowder in your mouth?

Can you hear the Sirens sing?

Its too late to turn around

Dont try too hard

Just be here now

And let this moment last

Summertime long dead and gone

When a sudden heat wave burns my skin

Caught his eye and all got lost -

A little thought become a sin

Spaceships and stars

Take up your flights -

The moments over
