

Anjali, Dusk

Who are you and where you from
And why does life go on and on ?
Through it all, I have to say
I couldn't live another day
And everything I touch turns to dust
It haunts me
I'm falling in the sea of saturnine
It wants me

Through it all I have to say
I couldn't live another day
And all of the fears I tended to be
I couldn't ever love
And everything I touch turns to dust
I couldn't ever love
