When you don't know & Damp; we're out of time and you don't show and we're hung to dry we take it with our fists held high singing to a shorus of one tonight you know it's too late & Damp; we don't shoot straight we take it too the streets tonight we're six guns south with our pistols by our sides, we pledge allegiance, freedom reigns tonight right or wrong heads too strong & Damp; we don't look back and we're throwin' it all away on election day we led astray.
