

Anna Clendening, I Don't Even Like You Anymore

My dad says he hates you, I always forgive you
For making everything so hard
Like my 24th birthday, you made me cry all the way home
I think that's when we started falling apart

Convinced myself I can make this right, but it turns out you're just a waste of time
Roll your eyes then realize...

I don't even like you anymore, I don't know what the fuck I'm crying for
Can't remember what I felt before the things you put me through
I know that I don't love you, cause I don't even like you anymore
I don't even like you anymore

I'll stay friends with your sister, God knows that I'll miss her
But I'll never talk to you again (no no no)
Hope you find somebody, who treats me like you treated me
So you can see why I don't wish you the best

Convinced myself I can make this right, but it turns out you're just a waste of time
Roll your eyes then realize...

I don't even like you anymore, I don't know what the fuck I'm crying for
Can't remember what I felt before the things you put me through
I know that I don't love you, cause I don't even like you anymore
I don't even like you anymore

Don't wanna talk about it (no no no)
Don't wanna hear about it (no no no)
Don't wanna talk about it (no no no)

I don't even like you anymore, I don't know what the fuck I'm crying for
Can't remember what I felt before the things you put me through
I know that I don't love you, cause I don't even like you anymore
I don't even like you anymore

I know that I don't love you (oh no no no no)
Cause I don't like even like you anymore
I don't even like you anymore
