

Anna Ternheim, Damaged Ones

Maybe we are the damaged ones
Endless need like a burning sun
Burns like you, my damaged one
On my knees in a faceless crowd
We go blind when the stakes are high
I'm on my knees, can you see me now?
Whatever you do don't leave me tonight
Maybe we are the damaged ones
Endless need like a burning sun
Burns like you, my damaged one

You and I in a shameless state
I want you so badly you know that it's a pain to wait
What keeps you from moving, are you afraid to be loved?
See how my hands shake, I was raised on it like a drug
Maybe we are the damaged ones
Endless need like a burning sun
Burns like you, my damaged one
It's you or none, my damaged one
It's you or none, my damaged one
