

Anna Tsuchiya, Blue Moon

It's so dark it's so cold
No hate, no tears no time for us, nobody else
Just me & you
Ah, it's so sad it's so deep
In silence, on the wave, in the light
Gently dancing with me
When the sunlight came into my room
Forget about the time for crying
I don't have to weep day&night no more
Oh what a beautiful night
Save me from shadow in my side oh my blue moon
It's the first time to meet somebody like you
in my life time
You are my blue moon
Oh, you are my blue moon
You make me smile and make me laugh
I know you are my little angel
When you kiss me, I know this is color of love
I Want to be The Air for you
I want to be tears for you
I will wipe away your tears
If you feel alone
Oh what a beautiful night
Save me from shadow in my side oh my blue moon
It's the first time to meet somebody like you
In my life time
You are my blue moon
Oh, you are my blue moon
Promise me, if i get lost on my way and don't know where to go
Show me the way, show me the truth, guard me with your arms, forever
I Want to be The Air for you
I want to be tears for you
I will wipe away your tears
If you feel alone
