

Anna Vissi, Everything I Am

seems only yesterday now, hiding my heart away
i kept my world outside thought love could not be mine then suddenly i see you i knew it had to be you i feel your spirit in me love has saved my life

Everything I am. everything i own everything that's happening before my eyes i owe it all to you

pure is the love soft is the touch, you thrill like no one before, how could i want you more? like rain falls to the ocean like changes of the seasons some things are meant to be i found myself in you

repeat chorus

'cos it's your love that saved me it's your love that made me

repeat chorus
