

Anne-Marie, Take Time

Hold on to me, don't say "bye"
Don't let go of me, I won't be fine
I put on a front to deal with it
Even though it's killing me
Can't let you think that I am here, crying

I'll get over it, but it will take time
Time, time
It will take, it will take time, time
It will take, it will take time
