

Anne Murray, I Believe in You

They ask me how I feel and if my love is real
And how I know I'll make it through
And they, they look at me and frown, they'd like to drive me from this town
They don't want me around 'cause I believe in you
They show me to the door, they say don't come back no more
'Cause I won't be like they'd like me to
And I walk out on my own, a thousand miles from home
But I don't feel alone 'cause I believe in you
I believe in you even through the tears and the laughter
I believe in you even though we are apart
I believe in you even on the morning after
Oh, when the dawn is nearing, oh, when the night is disappearing
Oh, this feeling is still here in my heart
Don't let me drift too far, keep me where you are
Where I will always be renewed
And that which you've given me today is worth more than I could pay
And no matter what they say, I believe in you
I believe in you when winter turn to summer
I believe in you when white turn to black
I believe in you even though I be outnumbered
Oh, though the earth may shake me, oh, though my friends forsake me
Oh, even that couldn't make me go back
Don't let me change my heart, keep me set apart
From all the plans they do pursue
And I, I don't mind the pain, don't mind the driving rain
I know I will sustain 'cause I believe in you
