

Anne Murray, Me Too

I don't want to hear it
No more fussin' and a fightin'
Baby, hold me tight
Let's let bygones be bygones
Let's think about tomorrow
Our future's bright
Well, I know I was wrong
I was such a fool, too blind to see
You are the only one for me
Ah, but now I've seen the light
Everything's gonna be all right
Baby, hold me tight
