

Anneli Drecker, All I know

I wasn't ready for this
You left me here on my own
So, this is where I stand
I wasn't ready for this
The bright days all suddenly turned dark
Walking here all by myself
Wondering what went wrong
Wait what I said or didn't say?
How did I get in this mess
In being so alone
All I know is that you disappeared
I wasn't ready for this
You left me here on my own
I wasn't ready for this
To house a cold, eclipsing heart
Ooh, a cold heart
Walking here all by myself
Wondering what went wrong
That I couldn't know of Didn't see
All those dreams now fulfilled
Why did they stop to glow?
All I know is that you disappeared
Everywhere I turn and go
I feel the ghost of you
Memories haunt my ever troubled mind
How I wish for this to end
Find peace and start a new ..
All I know is that you disappeared
