

Annie Lennox, The Saddest Song

Darling are you feeling the same thing that I'm seeing?
Troubles of the day,
took my breath away,

took my breath away.
Now you're longer talking,
There's nothing left to say,

And I'm no longer hearing.
said it anyway,
said it anyway.
And I want you not.
And I need you not.
I'm dying

'cause this is the saddest song I've got,
saddest song I've got.

Darling are you healing,
from all those scars appearing?
Don't it hurt alot
Don't know how it stops.
Don't know how to stop,
Now there's no sense in seeing the colors of the morning.

Can't hold the clouds at bay,
chase them all away,
chase them all away.

And I'm frozen still unspoken still heartbroken
something I forgot. remembering something I forgot
