Annihilator, Alison Hell

Alice isn't frightening Alice aren't you scared Alice isn't is wonderful

Living life afraid

Don't look around the corner

I might be lurking there

Under the bed at night

You're up till dawn again

Alison hell, your mind begins to fold

Alison hell, aren't you growing cold

Alison hell, you are looking blue

Alice in hell, what else can you do

I begin my rule, life hideous in your mind

Crying out, you've lost your doll

It isn't worth a dime

Alison hell, your mind begins to fold

Alison hell, aren't you growing cold

Alison hell, what are you looking for

Alice in hell, soon I close the door

Sitting in the corner, you are naked and alone No one listened to your fears, you've created me

Alice isn't frightening

Alice aren't you scared

I was killed at birth

I shoot this final scene

You're in the basement

You're trapped insanity

Alison hell, what were you looking for

Alison hell, as I close the door

Alison hell, here you shall dwell

Alison hell, Alice dwells in hell

Alice

Alison

Alice

In Hell

Goodbye

Alice

Alison Hell

Yeaa!
