

Annihilator, Battered

help me, i'm shattered again, life is dripping out of me a pounding like never before, it's time to end the agony a whipped dog, programmed to obey, i've got to do this right got to retaliate, find the strength and mount a fight battered, got to fight back you are battered, a vicious attack wing in a fantasy world, it's all but make-believe stalking, never let me go, hunt me down if i try to leave insults add to injury, re-live it again and again the sentence will be bloody and swift, it's time to put this all to an end got to find the strength inside, just one more chance, i'm getting tired i'm not going to take it anymore no more help me, i'm shattered again, i've got to take control no more, the end of the pain, i must re-claim my soul tell me, my life is coming back, am i the chosen one beggining fore mercy, i did what had to be done
