

Annihilator, Murder

Six feet under no longer alive
this is your destiny
cause I have arrived
I am not a nightmare
I am disease
and I'll bring society
to it's knees
murder the world
I was born to murder the world the fools and the innocent they're all the same to me, I thrive on pleasure and pain
it's not a war of attrition I never lose the games feel the grand invasion feasting in the veins
I was born to murder the world
your strenght devoured
just wither away
'til the final hour
the battle is won
march to the beat
I am the plague, invincible that you can't defeat
I was born to murder the world
